Dear Professor Hronszky,

Brussels, 14 September 2003

SUBJECT: first workshop of the "Forum on Sustainable Technological Development in a Globalising World", Budapest, 4-6 December 2003

The European Academy of Sciences and Arts wishes to recognise the importance of your forthcoming workshop focusing on problems associated with technological innovation in a changing social environment.

Today's technological progress brings about new problems of inclusion and exclusion - on a worldwide, regional, country and sub-country levels.

Our Academy, therefore, welcomes your initiative to assess possible consequences of technological progress on the human societies in our globalised world.

Kind regards,

Dr. Gilbert Fayl

Secretary of External Affairs

European Academy of Sciences and Arts (EASA)
